The Grand Jury charges that

COUNT I - CONSPIRACY

Between, on or about January 1, 2014 through April 30, 2016, in the District of Nebraska and elsewhere, DARNELL GORDON, LARRY GORDON, LYLE GORDON, ISAIAH BROWN, CAL MCCOY, BAKARI HUNT, WAKONDA HAZEL, BAJAH PITTMAN, BRENIS VAUGHN, and OMARI MANUEL defendants herein, did knowingly and willfully conspire and agree together and with each other, with Kentrell Reed, and with other persons known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit bank larceny and attempted bank larceny, by taking and carrying away with the intent to steal and purloin, Automatic Teller Machines (ATM's) and United States currency contained within the ATM's, belonging to banks and credit unions whose deposits were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and National Credit Union Association (NCUA), and to unlawfully transport in interstate commerce stolen vehicles and stolen property of a value greater than $5000, knowing the vehicles and property to be stolen.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

It was part of the conspiracy that defendants identified ATM machines located in businesses that appeared vulnerable to be taken from the businesses through glass exterior doors;

It was also part of the conspiracy that defendants stole pick-up trucks or vans, or rented U-Haul trucks and vans, and used the stolen and rented vehicles to transport defendants to businesses where the ATM machines were located, and to assist in the removal of the ATM machines from the businesses by attaching chains, ropes, or straps around the ATM machines and pulling them through broken glass doorways. After the ATM machines had been pulled outside of the businesses, they were placed into the stolen/rented vehicles and transported from the businesses to other locations;

It was also part of the conspiracy that defendants rented vehicles from rental companies to transport them to and from locations where ATM machines were located;

It was also part of the conspiracy that defendants conducted visual surveillance of the areas around businesses with ATM machines, to attempt to detect the possible presence of law enforcement, while other defendants broke and entered into the businesses and removed the ATM machines;

It was also part of the conspiracy that defendants utilized cellular telephones to monitor the location of local law enforcement in relation to the businesses where the ATM machines were located, while the defendants attempted to remove the ATM machines from the businesses;

It was also part of the conspiracy that defendants purchased screwdrivers, hammers, sledgehammers, gloves, chains, ropes, straps, saws, and other tools defendants used to break into businesses that housed ATM machines, and to assist defendants to open cash canisters located within the stolen ATM machines;

It was also part of the conspiracy that the defendants broke open the ATM machines that had been removed from the businesses and removed the U.S. currency contained within the currency cassettes inside the ATM machines;

It was also part of the conspiracy that defendants discarded the ATM machines and the stolen pick-ups/vans after the currency was removed from the ATM machines.

OVERT ACTS
